A Perfect Summer's Evening

Wow what a summer we enjoyed last year.

The Summer Festival 2014 was truly memorable and for all the right reasons; some really top notch shows, record audiences and super feedback... (see right) The bar keeps getting higher, and we are working as hard as ever to ensure it doesn't stop there; we've already booked some fantastic shows for the new season. We are grateful to our Festival Friends, and their subscriptions which allow us to secure the best shows for our unique venue, and commit to offering a season of top class entertainment.

Of course, there are also many benefits available to Festival Friends. In addition to the Priortiy Booking and Theatre Ticket Discounts on offer, we are pleased to have once again secured the additional benefits and discounts offered from our local partners.

Theatre Development Update

In addition to the many Friends who subscribe each year, the Theatre is grateful for the donations it receives towards improvements of the Theatre facilities and site. As a result of the your generous support over the past two years we are now over halfway towards the cost of new canopies for the seating stands. We are optimistic that with one final push this year we will reach our final target and have new gleaming white covers to welcome you to the first show of the 2015 Season.

Thank you if you feel able to contribute.
