SUMMER FESTIVAL 2014

A Perfect Summer's Evening

Theatre Goers revealed that:

ertainment, and overall experience at the festival was excellent, with 70% saying it was excellent and a further 13% as Good. The ticket price was good value for money, and provided excellent live entertainment for the audience.

It was noted that the weather did not effect their decision to attend.

Restaurant or by simply wandering through the magnificent gardens.

For matinee performances, the gates open at 2pm and the audience may remain in the gardens after the performance until the grounds are closed for the day, usually at 6 pm.

There is free and ample PARKING for cars and coaches, most of which provides hard standing.

"... what a brilliant evening, the weather was kind to us after the rain yesterday, the show was slick, the music and song was unforgettable... A truly memorable evening." Audience 2013

The Festival Theatre is an open air venue set in a magical location in the award winning gardens of Hever Castle in Kent. Located on the delightful Two Sisters Lawn adjacent to the legendary Anne Boleyn Walk - the Castle was originally the home of the Boleyn family, the Theatre is surrounded by some delightful flower beds including the famous 'long border' and an abundance of ornamental trees; it also contains the picturesque Two Sisters pond (and grotto) and a magnificent Tulip Tree.

"Really enjoyable, really good acting, really good weather wise, the perfect evening - as usual." Audience 2013

The Summer Festival offers a wide selection of shows with something to suit all ages and most tastes. We work hard to ensure our performances are of the best possible standard whilst keeping ticket prices affordable, and so have established a following of many thousands over the past 31 years.

The stage is fully covered, and the seating tiered, with the vast majority of seats also under cover. It really is the best of both worlds, the chance to enjoy a spectacular outdoor setting and first rate show, with protection from the elements and an intimacy not normally associated with outdoor events.

"Came on Saturday and really enjoyed it, we were under cover so rain wasn't a problem. A lovely evening" Audience 2013

Audience are able to enter the grounds from 6.30pm for evening performances, where they may enjoy the beautiful Castle gardens and ambience by bringing a picnic, choosing to eat in the Castle

ILLYRIA present

GEORGE'S MARVELLOUS MEDICINE

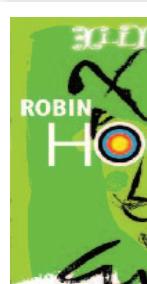

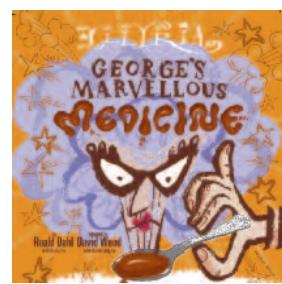

by Roald Dahl, adapted by David Wood

Thurs 29th & Fri 30th May - Suitable for all ages 5+

Performances start 2.30pm; gates open 2pm; Exit 6pm

It's the first day of half-term, and Grandma is coming to stay. Soon she is making George's life miserable with spiteful comments and demands for her medicine, so George decides to concoct his own marvellous medicine to make her better. He gives it to Grandma on a spoon - with hilarious results! Following their record-breaking sell-out season of THE TWITS, Illyria return with another super Roald Dahl classic full of larger-than-life characters, plenty to join in with, and just a twist of malicious fun. It's guaranteed to send you through the roof!

'David Wood's sparkling new adaptation of the Roald Dahl classic gets the ear-splitting, roof-raising response it deserves...' The Stage.

Cambridge Touring Theatre present

ALICE'S ADVENTURES in WONDERLAND

Suitable for ages 3 – 12 years (Enjoyed by all)

Tues 5th & Weds 6th August

Performances start 2.30pm; gates open 2pm; Exit 6pm

Logic is abandoned in this wonderfully interactive tale of childhood and imagination as Alice meets the White Rabbit, Mad Hatter and March Hare. Filled with catchy songs such as 'A Flea and a Fly in a Flu', this lively and funny performance is brought to life for families with music, dancing and a host of pranks that appeal to both children and adults alike. With adaptation by children's playwright John Gardener ('Rockasocka', 'Dracula Spectacula'), and composition by Simon Humphreys, this production promises to be full of energy and inspiration.

"...wonderful ...entertaining ...enthraling" * What's on Stage

ILLYRIA present

ROBIN HOOD - Traditional, adapted by Oliver Gray

Saturday 23rd August - Suitable for all ages 5+

Performance starts 7.30pm - Ends approx 9:15pm

Illyria's production is adapted from the earliest Robin Hood ballads pre-dating Chaucer, and includes songs by Thomas Love Peacock and Alfred Lord Tennyson - as well as a memorably cheeky more up-to-date one! The play is written in fast-moving, easy-to-follow verse, and introduces all the well-loved characters such as Little John, Friar Tuck, Maid Marian and King Richard. It is a collection of tales featuring camaraderie, swashbuckling action, and riotous comedy.

First performed in 2007, it remains one of Illyria's most popular ever titles. You'll definitely laugh, you'll probably cry - and if you're not cheering at the archery competition involving the entire audience then you must be dead!

Performances start at 8:00pm - Gates open at 6:30pm

Bromley Little Theatre present
ANNE BOLEYN by Howard Brenton

Thurs 24th – Sat 26th July

Matinee Performance at 2.30pm on Friday 25th July

Anne Boleyn is perhaps the most controversial woman ever to wear the crown of England. Among Henry VIII's six wives, she is remembered as both famous and infamous and her story is a heady mixture of intense love, death and betrayal combined with a sense of reckless fun and daring sexiness.

Brenton states that he wrote this play to celebrate Anne's life and her legacy as a great English woman who helped to change the course of our history. The Play sold out at Shakespeare's Globe for two seasons on the run and was a huge hit at Bromley Little Theatre during the summer of 2013. Now this dramatic, highly accessible production comes to Anne's ancestral home at Hever Castle. Although the play takes on grand ideas that have had serious consequences, it is extremely funny and reveals the Tudor pack at their most snarling, scheming, ribald, pleasure-seeking and gaily entertaining.

It has drama, sex, intrigue, hilarity – in short – as much entertainment value as a Tudor execution!

Kent Rep Associates present

IT COULD BE ANY ONE OF US by Alan Ayckbourn

Thurs 28th – Sat 30th August

Matinee Performance at 2.30pm on Friday 29th August

At first sight It Could Be Anyone of Us is a classic country house whodunit. There is the isolated manor house – a stormy night with the wind rattling the window panes – alarming happenings – a wealthy eccentric family squabbling over the family silver. There is a barrow load of motives and several would-be victims and villains. BUT this whodunit is not by Agatha Christie; it is a comedy thriller from the pen of Alan Ayckbourn. It is therefore, in the words of one reviewer, 'excruciatingly funny' – reflecting Ayckbourn's characteristically sharp eye for the absurdities of human behaviour.

Furthermore, in conceiving his version of a whodunit, the author's tongue has been very firmly wedged in his cheek so that there are some real surprises in store for the unsuspecting audience. None more so than the identity of the villain which can vary from performance to performance. And yes it's your guess and no one can tip you off beforehand. Brilliant!

...a well-written play, highly entertaining... "The Stage

ILLYRIA present
THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE
by Gilbert & Sullivan

Thurs 7th & Fri 8th August

Reserved Covered - £23

Gilbert and Sullivan's most popular comic opera, packed with laughter, romance and a ship-full of memorable lyrics such as "To be a Pirate King!", "Modern Major General" and "A Policeman's Lot is Not a Happy One".

This wonderful operetta gets the complete ILLYRIA treatment, faithfully performed by a reduced cast and accompanied by a Musical Director on keyboard. Despite the reduction in scale not a single word from WS Gilbert's libretto is cut, nor a single note or harmony from Sir Arthur Sullivan's score unsung. The works are performed faithfully, in their entirety

"The singing was excellent as was every other aspect of your production..."

"Most enjoyable and brilliantly inventive. My two kids loved it also..."

Opera Brava come to Hever for the first time to present two stunning operas.

Now in its 26th year the Company has assembled a fabulous cast of young, exciting and thrilling singers mixed with some international artists who perform in major opera houses including English National Opera and The Royal Opera House. Their operas are fully staged, sung in English and accompanied by a piano and chamber ensemble.
