THEATRE INFORMATION

A Perfect Summer's Evening

The Festival Theatre is an open air venue set in a magical location in the award winning gardens of Hever Castle in Kent. Located on the delightful Two Sisters Lawn adjacent to the legendary Anne Boleyn Walk - the Castle was originally the home of the Boleyn family, the Theatre is surrounded by some delightful flower beds including the famous 'long border' and an abundance of ornamental trees; it also contains the picturesque Two Sisters pond (and grotto) and a magnificent Tulip Tree.

The Summer Festival offers a wide selection of shows with something to suit all ages and most tastes. We work hard to ensure our performances are of the best possible standard whilst keeping ticket prices affordable, and so have established a following of many thousands over the past 32 years.

The stage is fully covered, and the seating tiered, with the vast majority of seats also under cover. It really is the best of both worlds, the chance to enjoy a spectacular outdoor setting and first rate show, with protection from the elements and an intimacy not normally associated with outdoor events.

"Very professional and a lovely setting on a summers evening, the pavilion restaurant was open and many people were enjoying a picnic before the show on the grass areas. Easy parking and all in all to be recommended."

Gate Opening Times

Audience are able to enter the grounds from 6.30pm for evening performances, where they may enjoy the beautiful Castle gardens and ambience by bringing a picnic, choosing to eat in the Castle Restaurant or by simply wandering through the magnificent gardens. For matinee performances the gates open at 1.45pm, and the audience may remain in the gardens after the performance until the grounds are closed for the day, usually at 6pm.

Food and Drink

Pre-Theatre Suppers are available on the evening of performances, with earlier access to the Castle grounds for those who have booked their supper in advance. A Snack food counter and bar are also available pre-performance and during the interval.

Cream Teas are served in the Guthrie Pavilion following matinee performances of the Plays: Fallen Angels on Friday 31st July and The Pitmen Painters on Friday 14th August. Menus and full details for Pre-Theatre Suppers and Cream Teas are available on the Theatre website. To make a reservation, please call the Box Office on 01732 866114.

Accommodation

There is Five-Star rated, Luxury B&B offered in the Astor Wing of Hever Castle. For more information & details of special packages please visit www.hevercastle.co.uk or call The Astor Wing on 01732 861800

Illyria presents

THE SORCERER'S APPRENTICE

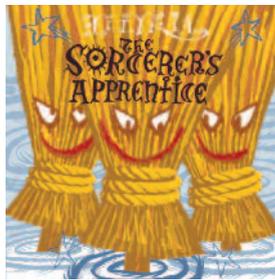

Traditional, adapted by Oliver Gray

Magic Consultant – Paul Daniels

Weds 27th & Thurs 28th May

The original boy-wizard story, most famously told in Disney's Fantasia, starring Mickey Mouse. Bored of his chores, the apprentice waves his wand and a broom magically fetches water. But he can't find a spell to stop it. In desperation he saws it in half - and everything spirals out of control... This show features breathtaking magical illusions, non-stop laughter and more water than you have EVER seen in a play before! There's a spectacular set, amazing effects, the original music by Paul Dukas (as used in Fantasia) and eye-popping magical illusions designed by the world famous illusionist Paul Daniels. Exciting, magical family fun for all.

"The most delicious theatrical experience you could ever wish for." Venue Magazine

Quantum Theatre presents

THE TALES OF PETER RABBIT and BENJAMIN BUNNY

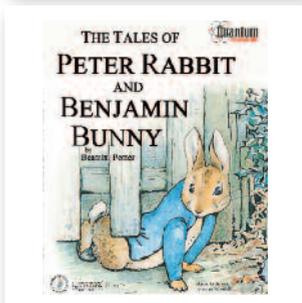

Adapted for stage by Michael Whitmore

Thursday 6th August

Peter Rabbit knows very well he's not to go into Mr McGregor's garden, especially as it was there his father met his untimely end! But he can't resist... and soon finds himself face to face with Mr McGregor himself! Can he escape his murderous clutches? Poor Peter! He vows never to return to that garden... until his naughty cousin Benjamin persuades him to make a return visit. This time, however, there's more danger on the prowl in the shape of Mr McGregor's cat. Can Old Mr Bunny come to the rescue in time?

Quantum Theatre's delightful production follows the scrapes and escapades of all your favourite characters from the Peter Rabbit tales in a magical and enchanting experience for young and old alike.

"Truly outstanding! Such an enjoyable evening, and a performance with so much energy and enthusiasm. So many subtleties and nuances that made the performance such a delight..."

Chapterhouse Theatre Company presents

THE JUNGLE BOOK - By Rudyard Kipling; Adapted by Laura Turner

Wednesday 19th August

In the magical Indian jungle a new arrival changes the animal kingdom forever. Join Mowgli on his wonderful adventures with the loveable and wise Baloo the Bear, the powerful panther Bagheera, and not to mention mischievous monkeys and the terrifying tiger Shere Khan!

Rudyard Kipling's best known and most loved story creates an enchanting and fun-filled musical show for children of all ages, and for this performance children are invited to dress up in their favourite animal costume and join in the Jungle Parade in the interval.

"What Chapterhouse does is theatre at the coalface, carried by the power of acting... and they do it with distinction." The Stage 2014

Illyria presents

THE THREE MUSKETEERS

By Alexandre Dumas

Fri 29th & Sat 30th May

All for One; One for All! Young D'Artagnan is desperate to join Athos, Porthos and Aramis as an elite Musketeer of the King's Guard. But are his swashbuckling credentials sufficient? Find out as the fearless four survive the schemes of Cardinal Richelieu and cross swords with the deadly Milady de Winter. With a reputation for staging some of the finest swordplay in the business (Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves, Macbeth, Robin Hood), Illyria's swashbuckling in THE THREE MUSKETEERS promises to be more dazzling than ever! This production, specially adapted for international award-winning Illyria, is sumptuously costumed and fast-moving.

Kent Rep present

FALLEN ANGELS by Noël Coward

Thurs 30th July – Sat 1st August

Plus Matinee Performance at 2.30pm on Fri 31 July
For this year's Summer Festival, Kent Rep has chosen one of Noël Coward's most enduring and outrageous comedies. First produced in 1925, Fallen Angels was an overnight sensation. Described by the press as 'amoral', 'obscene', and 'an insult to British womanhood' the play centres around two respectable married women who have enjoyed pre-marital affairs with the same Frenchman and who is now threatening to visit them in London.

Faced with the prospect of exposure and embarrassment, Jane and Julia reminisce over a champagne-fuelled dinner and discuss their options whilst awaiting the visit of their former lover. Inevitably their conversation becomes an alcoholic duologue of mutual recrimination and resentment and climaxes with hysterics and a farcical exchange of ineffectual blows and missiles. Hilarious! It is simply wonderful entertainment.

Bromley Little Theatre present

THE PITMEN PAINTERS by Lee Hall

Thurs 13th – Sat 15th August - Plus Matinee Performance at 2.30pm on Fri 14 August

Following their 2014 sell out production of Anne Boleyn, BLT is thrilled to return with the highly acclaimed The Pitmen Painters by Tony award winning playwright Lee Hall, creator of the world wide sensation 'Billy Elliot' and current West-End smash hit 'Shakespeare In Love'. Since its first performance at Newcastle Live Theatre in 2007 The Pitmen Painters has wowed audiences with sell out runs at the National Theatre, in London's West End and on Broadway, winning the Evening Standard Award for Best New Play in 2008. Based upon real events, it is the inspirational and heart warming story of a group of miners at the Ashington Colliery in 1934. The Pitmen Painters is a richly funny, profoundly moving and highly entertaining salute to the lives of a group of ordinary men who do extraordinary things. Prepare to laugh and cry, but most of all to have a great theatrical experience.

"Breathtaking" The Guardian

"A wonderful piece of theatre: comic, sad and stirring in the same breath" Financial Times

ONE NIGHT of ELVIS

There are Elvis tributes... and then there's Lee Memphis King.

Saturday 23rd May

In this brand new show for 2015, Europe's most successful Elvis Presley tribute artist - Lee Memphis King, presents the ultimate tribute to The King - celebrating the entire career of the musical legend. This spectacular show begins with an authentic recreation of the groundbreaking '68 comeback special. The second half culminates in a rousing expo of Elvis's years performing in Vegas. Lee brings the majesty of the voice and the electrifying power of Elvis's performance back to life. Featuring new songs and stunning costumes, 'One Night of Elvis' remains the most authentic and most popular Elvis Presley production around.

"Judging by this quality performance at a full Hammersmith Apollo, Lee Memphis King is certainly among the premier league of tributes." The Stage Newspaper

"Lee Memphis King is a star in his own right, with his professionalism and desire to leave us all walking away believing that we had been touched by Elvis himself." The Daily Info, Oxford

AN EVENING of DIRTY DANCING

The Tribute Show

Sunday 24th May

Embarking upon its 5th Anniversary tour this is a five-star homage to the greatest movie soundtrack of all time. Illyria presents
IOLANTHE
by Gilbert & Sullivan

Sat 22nd & Sun 23rd August - Reserved Covered - £23

Gilbert and Sullivan's most magical comic opera is about Iolanthe, a fairy, who falls in love with a mortal. The opera is set half in Fairyland and half in Westminster, although both places seem to be full of the same bumbling Lords. Its hilarious and surprisingly topical satire pokes fun at love, class and politics; and many believe its sumptuous harmonies to be the most beautiful Sullivan wrote.

It gets the complete Illyria treatment, faithfully performed by a reduced cast and accompanied by a Musical Director on keyboard. Despite the reduction in scale not a single word from WS Gilbert's libretto is cut, nor a single note or harmony from Sir Arthur Sullivan's score unsung.

"Last night we came and ate a picnic (before the rain) and saw Pirates of Penzance, (Illyria 2014) It was just brilliant, we laughed all the way through as well as enjoying the vocals. More of this company please it was great fun... Another success for Hever Theatre Company."

"The singing was excellent as was every other aspect of your production..."

We are delighted to welcome Opera Brava back to Hever.

Now in its 27th year the Company has assembled a fabulous cast of young, exciting and thrilling singers mixed with some international artists who perform in major opera houses including Covent Garden, English National Opera and The Royal Opera House. Their operas are fully staged, sung in English and accompanied by a piano and chamber ensemble.

CANDLELIT OPERA GALA

Friday 7th August - Reserved Covered - £25

This event promises to have something for everyone. The programme is fully staged and contains a feast of opera's most inspiring music that will create a positive and lasting memory. The first half includes such gems as the "Lakme" duet, the "Pearl Fishers" duet, "Rigoletto quartet" and many others; whilst the second half offers something a little different and special with a West Side Story medley, Lehár, Rodgers & Hammerstein, Gershwin melodies and a popular medley from the Gilbert & Sullivan operas, all interspersed with informative and comic anecdotes.

CARMEN by Georges Bizet

Saturday 8th August - Reserved Covered - £27.50

Carmen lays claim to the title of 'The Most Popular Opera'. The music, full of extravagant melody and rich in operatic hits such as the Habanera and The Toreador Song, has captivated audiences over the decades.

This new production with a sensational Carmen and an International cast is vibrant with energy and passion. It takes hold of the dramatic story of Carmen and reveals how she deals with her love for two very different men. It is a tale of forbidden passion between a young soldier and a fiery Gypsy girl.

"Enjoyed Opera Brava tremendously (both Tosca and Rigoletto) – would love to see them back next year!" Audience Feedback 2014

Sunday 9th August - Reserved Covered - £25; Grass Seating - £16

Direct from London's world-famous jazz club, Ronnie Scott's, the 'All Stars', take to the stage at Hever to celebrate 'The Ronnie Scott's Story'. Mixing classic music from the jazz greats who have performed at Ronnie Scott's - such as Count Basie and Miles Davis - alongside tales of old Soho, miscreant musicians, police raids, and the mystery bottle of Mumm Champagne that sits behind the club's bar - this is unique evening celebrating one of the world's most famous jazz venues, its music, and history.

"Outstanding players. For poise, balance and swing they're a joy to listen to" The Observer

THE JIVE ACES

Friday 21st August - Reserved Covered - £23; Grass Seating - £15

The Jive Aces are the UK's No.1 Jive & Swing band and are renowned worldwide for their high-energy swinging music, spectacular live show and being the first live band to reach the final rounds of "Britain's Got Talent". The band's live set includes songs from their latest album King of the Swingers featuring such classics as: Bare Necessities; Mack The Knife; Sing, Sing, Sing and, of course, their hit version of Morcambe & Wise's Bring Me Sunshine.

In 2012 The Jive Aces wowed the judges on "Britain's Got Talent" with their show-stopping version of "I Wanna Be Like You", which famously cheered up a grumpy Simon Cowell. Their music video, "Bring Me Sunshine", has become a viral hit with 2.5 million views on Youtube and has won seven film festival awards. It has been hailed as one of the most uplifting videos of recent times and has even been prescribed by a doctor in Seattle!

"Absolutely Brilliant! That really put me in a good mood". - Simon Cowell

THE THEORY OF EVERYTHING

Thursday 27th August

This is the extraordinary story of one of the world's greatest living minds, the renowned astrophysicist Stephen Hawking, who falls deeply in love with fellow Cambridge student Jane Wilde. Once a healthy, active young man, Hawking received an earth-shattering diagnosis at 21 years of age, but with Jane fighting tirelessly by his side, he embarks on his most ambitious scientific work, studying the very thing he now has precious little of - time.

Stars Eddie Redmayne, Felicity Jones, Tom Prior

THE SHAWSHANK REDEMPTION

Friday 28th August

The film tells the story of Andy Dufresne, a banker who is sentenced to life in Shawshank State Prison for a double murder despite him stubbornly proclaiming his innocence. During his time at the prison, he befriends a fellow inmate, Ellis Boyd "Red" Redding, and finds himself protected by the guards after the warden begins using him in his money laundering operation. The two men bond over a number of years, finding solace and eventual redemption through acts of common decency.

Stars Tim Robbins and Morgan Freeman
